

Thursday, April 29, 2010, 7:30 p.m.

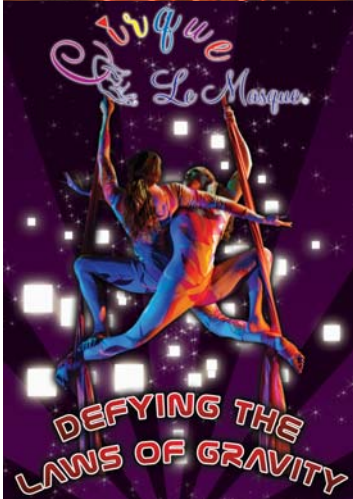

The gravity-defying performers of international troupe Cirque Le Masque bring an entirely new dimension to circus arts. In this sophisticated, European-style circus, brilliantly costumed jugglers, acrobats, and aerialists perform gasp-inducing acts of balance, grace, strength and detailed teamwork, set to spellbinding special effects and creatively inventive lighting, choreography and music. It is the ultimate theatrical experience, perfect for audiences of all ages. The artistry of the performers displays quick reflexes, impeccable timing, and human art.

Cirque Le Masque has presented their spectacular theatrical events to sold-out audiences throughout North and South America, France, Greece, Spain, Portugal and the Middle East. Their productions have toured across America headlining in Atlantic City and Las Vegas and have been featured on national television.

Cirque Le Masque has taken an idea and a framework and developed an amazing display of theatrical artistry and comic audience interaction.

The future of live theater is coming to Cole Auditorium with Cirque Le Masque.

COLE AUDITORIUM

Richmond
COMMUNITY COLLEGE