

Religious Observance Absence Policy

In compliance with 23 NCAC 02C.0213, "School Absence for Religious Observances," Richmond Community College (RCC) will grant up to two days of excused absences per academic year for religious observances required by the faith of a student. For the purposes of this policy, an academic year begins on the first day of fall semester classes in August and ends on the last day of summer classes in the following year.

A student requesting absence from classes for religious observances is required to complete the "Request for Religious Observance Absence" form no later than the 10% point of the semester. The student will be given the opportunity to make up tests or other work missed.

Approved by the RCC Trustees March 1, 2011.
