2 The Four Tops 0 Christmas

1 There is not much that needs to be said about this group other than just listing some of your favorite sing-along Motown hits. “Baby I Need Your Loving,” “Same Old Song,” and “I Can’t Help Myself (Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch)” bring back great memories of hits from a legendary group, The Four Tops.

1 Originally called The Four Aims, the group, charted nearly 30 songs over the course of eight years and had hit songs in three consecutive decades. The group performed for over four decades without a single change in the members. With strong influences from the wide-range of musical genres that they had performed while trying to make it big, their version of the Motown Sound has strong ties to pop, Broadway, jazz, and blues.

0 Although their last hit single was released in 1988, The Four Tops still prove to be a hit live in concert and tour incessantly as a testament to the continued popularity of the Motown Sound that they helped to create. The group was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1990 and into the Vocal Group Hall of Fame in 1999.

1 Sing along to classics like “Ain’t No Woman (Like The One I’ve Got),” “Keeper Of The Castle,” “Reach Out I’ll Be There,” and “Standing In The Shadows Of Love.”
